

Norfolk Notes.

NORFOLK, VA., April 21.—A hop was given Tuesday evening by Mr. Nash Reid and Mr. Holt Page at the Masonic Temple. Music was rendered by the Schenck's orchestra, and at 10 o'clock supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Garland Peed, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Johnston, Mrs. Southgate Taylor and Miss Lulu Reid were the chaperones, and among those present were: Miss Denise Mahan, Miss Mabel Hemingway, Miss Barbara Staton, Miss Fannie McDonald, Miss Fannie Elizabeth Worrell, Miss Alice Quimby, Miss Ena Voight, Miss Marion Simmons, Miss Annette Richardson, Miss Bessie Merritt, Miss Clara Godwin, Miss Emily Taylor, Misses John and Helen Crosby, Miss Louie Johnson, Miss Jennie Willett, Miss Marie Nicholson, Miss Margaret Guy, Mr. Holt Page, Mr. Nash Reid, Mr. Preston Wilkes, Mr. John Wales, Mr. Allan Marshall, Mr. Alfred Sweeney, Mr. Preston Wilkes, Mr. John Wales, Mr. Allan Marshall, Messrs. George, Eugene and Beverly Payne, Mr. Michael Glennan, Mr. John Loughran, Mr. Leslie Norman, Mr. Fred Barry, Mr. George Sargeant, Mr. Mabrey Hart, Mr. Frank Hiech, Mr. Frank Hughes, Mr. Claude Balm, Mr. Gordon Tyler, Mr. Willie Ham Bruce, Mr. John Stribling, Mr. Kipling, Messrs. William and Otway Law, Mr. Russell Bradford, Mr. C. A. Woodward, Mr. Heath Hume and Mr. Cecil Fletcher.

Mrs. Frederick Dewey gave a most enjoyable card party Tuesday afternoon at her apartment at the Lollan. There were ten tables of five-handed euchre, and the first prize, a fan, was awarded to Mrs. Hugh N. Page; the second, a telephone lift, was won by Mrs. Wallace Starke, while the consolation, a bridge whist, was drawn by Mrs. R. B. Cooke. Paymaster Frank Hiech Tuesday evening on board the Hornet. Covers were laid for eight, and his guests were Mrs. Robert Stocker, Miss Martin, of Blue Ridge Summit, Miss Alice Old, Miss Carl Stribling and Lieutenant Lewis, U. S. N. Miss Carl Stribling entertained a number of friends Monday afternoon at her home on Bush Street. The occasion was a tea given in honor of her guest, Miss Elizabeth B. Terry, of Bent Mountain. Miss Katherine, assisted by Miss Terry and Miss Katherine Plummer, of Canada, received those who called while in the dining room those who served were Miss Fannie Sam, Miss Phipp, of Arkansas; Miss Mona Whitte, Miss Hildegarde Chamberlaine, Miss Mary Paul Musi, Miss Bessie Baker and Miss Elizabeth Martin.

Monday afternoon Miss Alma Augusta Glennan gave a tea at her home on Olney Road. The hours for calling were from 4:30 to 6:30, and Miss Glennan was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. Ernest Lea, Misses Cyles, of Maryland, and Miss Helena Allen, of Virginia, who were in the dining room. Miss Fannie Bitheridge, Miss Virginia Cooke, Miss Mary Ethel Nottingham, Miss Emily Taylor, Miss Clara Vize, Miss May Bell and Miss Mary Belle Glennan. Miss Alice Old presided over the punch-bowl.

Mrs. C. Brooke Johnston entertained at bridge whist Monday afternoon at her home in Ghent. There were two tables, and those playing were: Mrs. Frederick M. Killam, Mrs. A. C. Dillingham, Mrs. Lawrence S. Adams, Mrs. Victor Blue, Mrs. Hugh N. Page, Mrs. Floyd Hughes and Mrs. Laird.

Miss Alpine Galling, of Baltimore, is the guest of Misses Margaret and Alpin Galling, on Botetourt Street.

Mrs. James J. Leik and Miss Mary J. Leik, who have been staying in New York for several weeks, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Samuel Barr and Miss Rosalie Barr, of Washington, are guests of Mrs. Philip E. Yeatman, on York Street.

Miss Gregory is visiting her niece, Mrs. B. R. Konrad, on York Street.

Mrs. J. Sidney Smith and sons have returned from a visit to relatives in Washington.

Mrs. Alex. Starke left Wednesday to visit her husband, Dr. Starke, U. S. N., at Manila. Before going there she will take an extended trip through Japan.

Mrs. Jackson is visiting relatives in Pulaski.

Misses Ellen Maury and Miss Susie Howard have returned to a visit to Miss Morrison, in Smithfield.

Mrs. Cofer, of Smithfield, is the guest of Mrs. Richard Melville, Jr., on Duke Street.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.

Mr. E. L. Embury, superintendent of the Columbia Paper Mills here, is in New York on business.

Miss Carolyn W. Drissey, of the faculty of the Southern Seminary of this city, spent the Easter season in Roanoke with colleagues and other friends.

Rev. J. M. Wells, State evangelist of the Baptist Church, left last week for Henry County.

The Buena Vista Baptist Church will begin a series of revival services next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Wicker, a celebrated evangelist from Philadelphia, Pa. He will be assisted by an organized chorus of fifty voices, composed of select local talent from the various churches of the city.

Miss Louise Merritt, who is a student at the Virginia Female Institute, Staunton, Va., spent the Easter holidays at her home here.

Miss Carrie Hardwick, who has been visiting her uncle here, Dr. Merritt, since last summer, returned last week to her home in Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Lella Richeson, who is teaching school in Rockbridge, was at her home here during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Lewis Dickinson is sick with fever, but is improving daily.

SCOTTSVILLE VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 21.—St. Ann's parish vestrymen were elected Monday as follows: W. G. Merrick, Edward W. Scott, Jr., Wm. R. Thomas, S.

BUENA VISTA, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BUENA VISTA, VA., April 21.—Miss Ethel Pearsall, of New York, who has been spending the winter here with her cousin, Miss Pauline Embury, returned to her home in New York last week.